

Contact: Laurie 32 Ranch Court
Buerke St. Louis, MO 63146
Managing Partner Phone 314.994.1797
Phone 314.520.0190 Fax 314.994.3128
Fax 314.994.3128

Press Release

The Old Spaghetti Factory Gets a Face Lift

St. Louis, MO February 15, 2007: The Old Spaghetti Factory has been the cornerstone of family-friendly commerce on Laclede's Landing for the past 3 decades. In preparation for its 30th birthday, this St. Louis landmark has undergone several months of rejuvenation. Since November 2006, contractors have been stealthy in performing several projects between dinner and luncheon schedules. Walls have been moved to accommodate more seating and the hostess station has been relocated to the upper floor to greet guests as they walk through the door. During a brief shut-down period, the entire kitchen was updated to accommodate the new menu selections that were added to

OSF's already dramatic character installed by run through the beautifully recreated stone walls and They have without affecting the furniture, updated lighting have not charming You can still eat popular and affordable fare. The of the new tigerwood floors, Rockwood Industries of St. Louis, upstairs reception area, down to a fan design on the landing and hug circular cast iron pillars below. brightened the dining room candle-lit dining experience. New paint, fresh carpet and additional changed the delicious food, atmosphere and friendly service. dinner on an actual trolley while savoring perfectly cooked pasta and spaghetti sauces, freshly made using only the finest ingredients. Take a moment to look at the fine antiques that abound within the 9000 square feet of restaurant.

The Old Spaghetti Factory is located in historic Raeder Place built in 1873 on North 1st Street and Morgan Street. This building is a National Historic Landmark and is one of few remaining buildings with a six story cast iron façade.